

FinnAgora warmly invites you to a
Finnish-Hungarian

RESEARCH SEMINAR

ON ARCHITECTURE AND COLLECTIVE MEMORY

Tuesday, 20 May 2025 at 9:00–14:30.

Location: Óbuda University

Ybl Miklós Faculty of Building Science

Main building, Room no. 114

Thököly út 74, 1146 BUDAPEST

Please register here!

SPEAKERS

Anu Soikkeli, PhD, DSc

Oulu School of Architecture, Faculty
of Technology

Petri Vuojala, PhD

Oulu School of Architecture, Faculty
of Technology

Éva Lovra, PhD

University of Debrecen, Faculty of Engineering

Tamás Fejérdy, DLA

Honorary associate professor,
Budapest University of Technology;
Honorary professor, Universitas
Pannonica

Izabella Agárdi, PhD

Institute of Advanced Studies Kőszeg

PROGRAM

9:00–9:30

Opening remarks by representatives from the Ybl Miklós Faculty of Building Science and FinnAgora

9:30–10:15

Petri Vuojala: Road Map to Urban Collective Memory

10:15–11:00

Anu Soikkeli: Places of Memory, Sites of Local People

11:00–11:45

Éva Lovra: Space and Memory: Mapping the Habsburg Central European Towns

11:45–12:15

Break

12:15–13:00

Tamás Fejérdy: The City as Materialised Memory - A Vehicle of Resilience and Identity

13:00–13:45

Izabella Agárdi: Theoretical Perspectives on the Relationship Between Identity and Place: Fluid Identities and the Legacy Embedded in Urban Buildings from a Commemorative Standpoint

13:45–14:30

Discussion and Closing Remarks (Éva Lovra)

FINNAGORA

ÓBUDAI EGYETEM
YBL MIKLÓS ÉPÍTÉSTUDOMÁNYI KAR

KONE FOUNDATION